

Continental United States Hurricane Strikes 1950 – 2014*

Hurricane Arthur

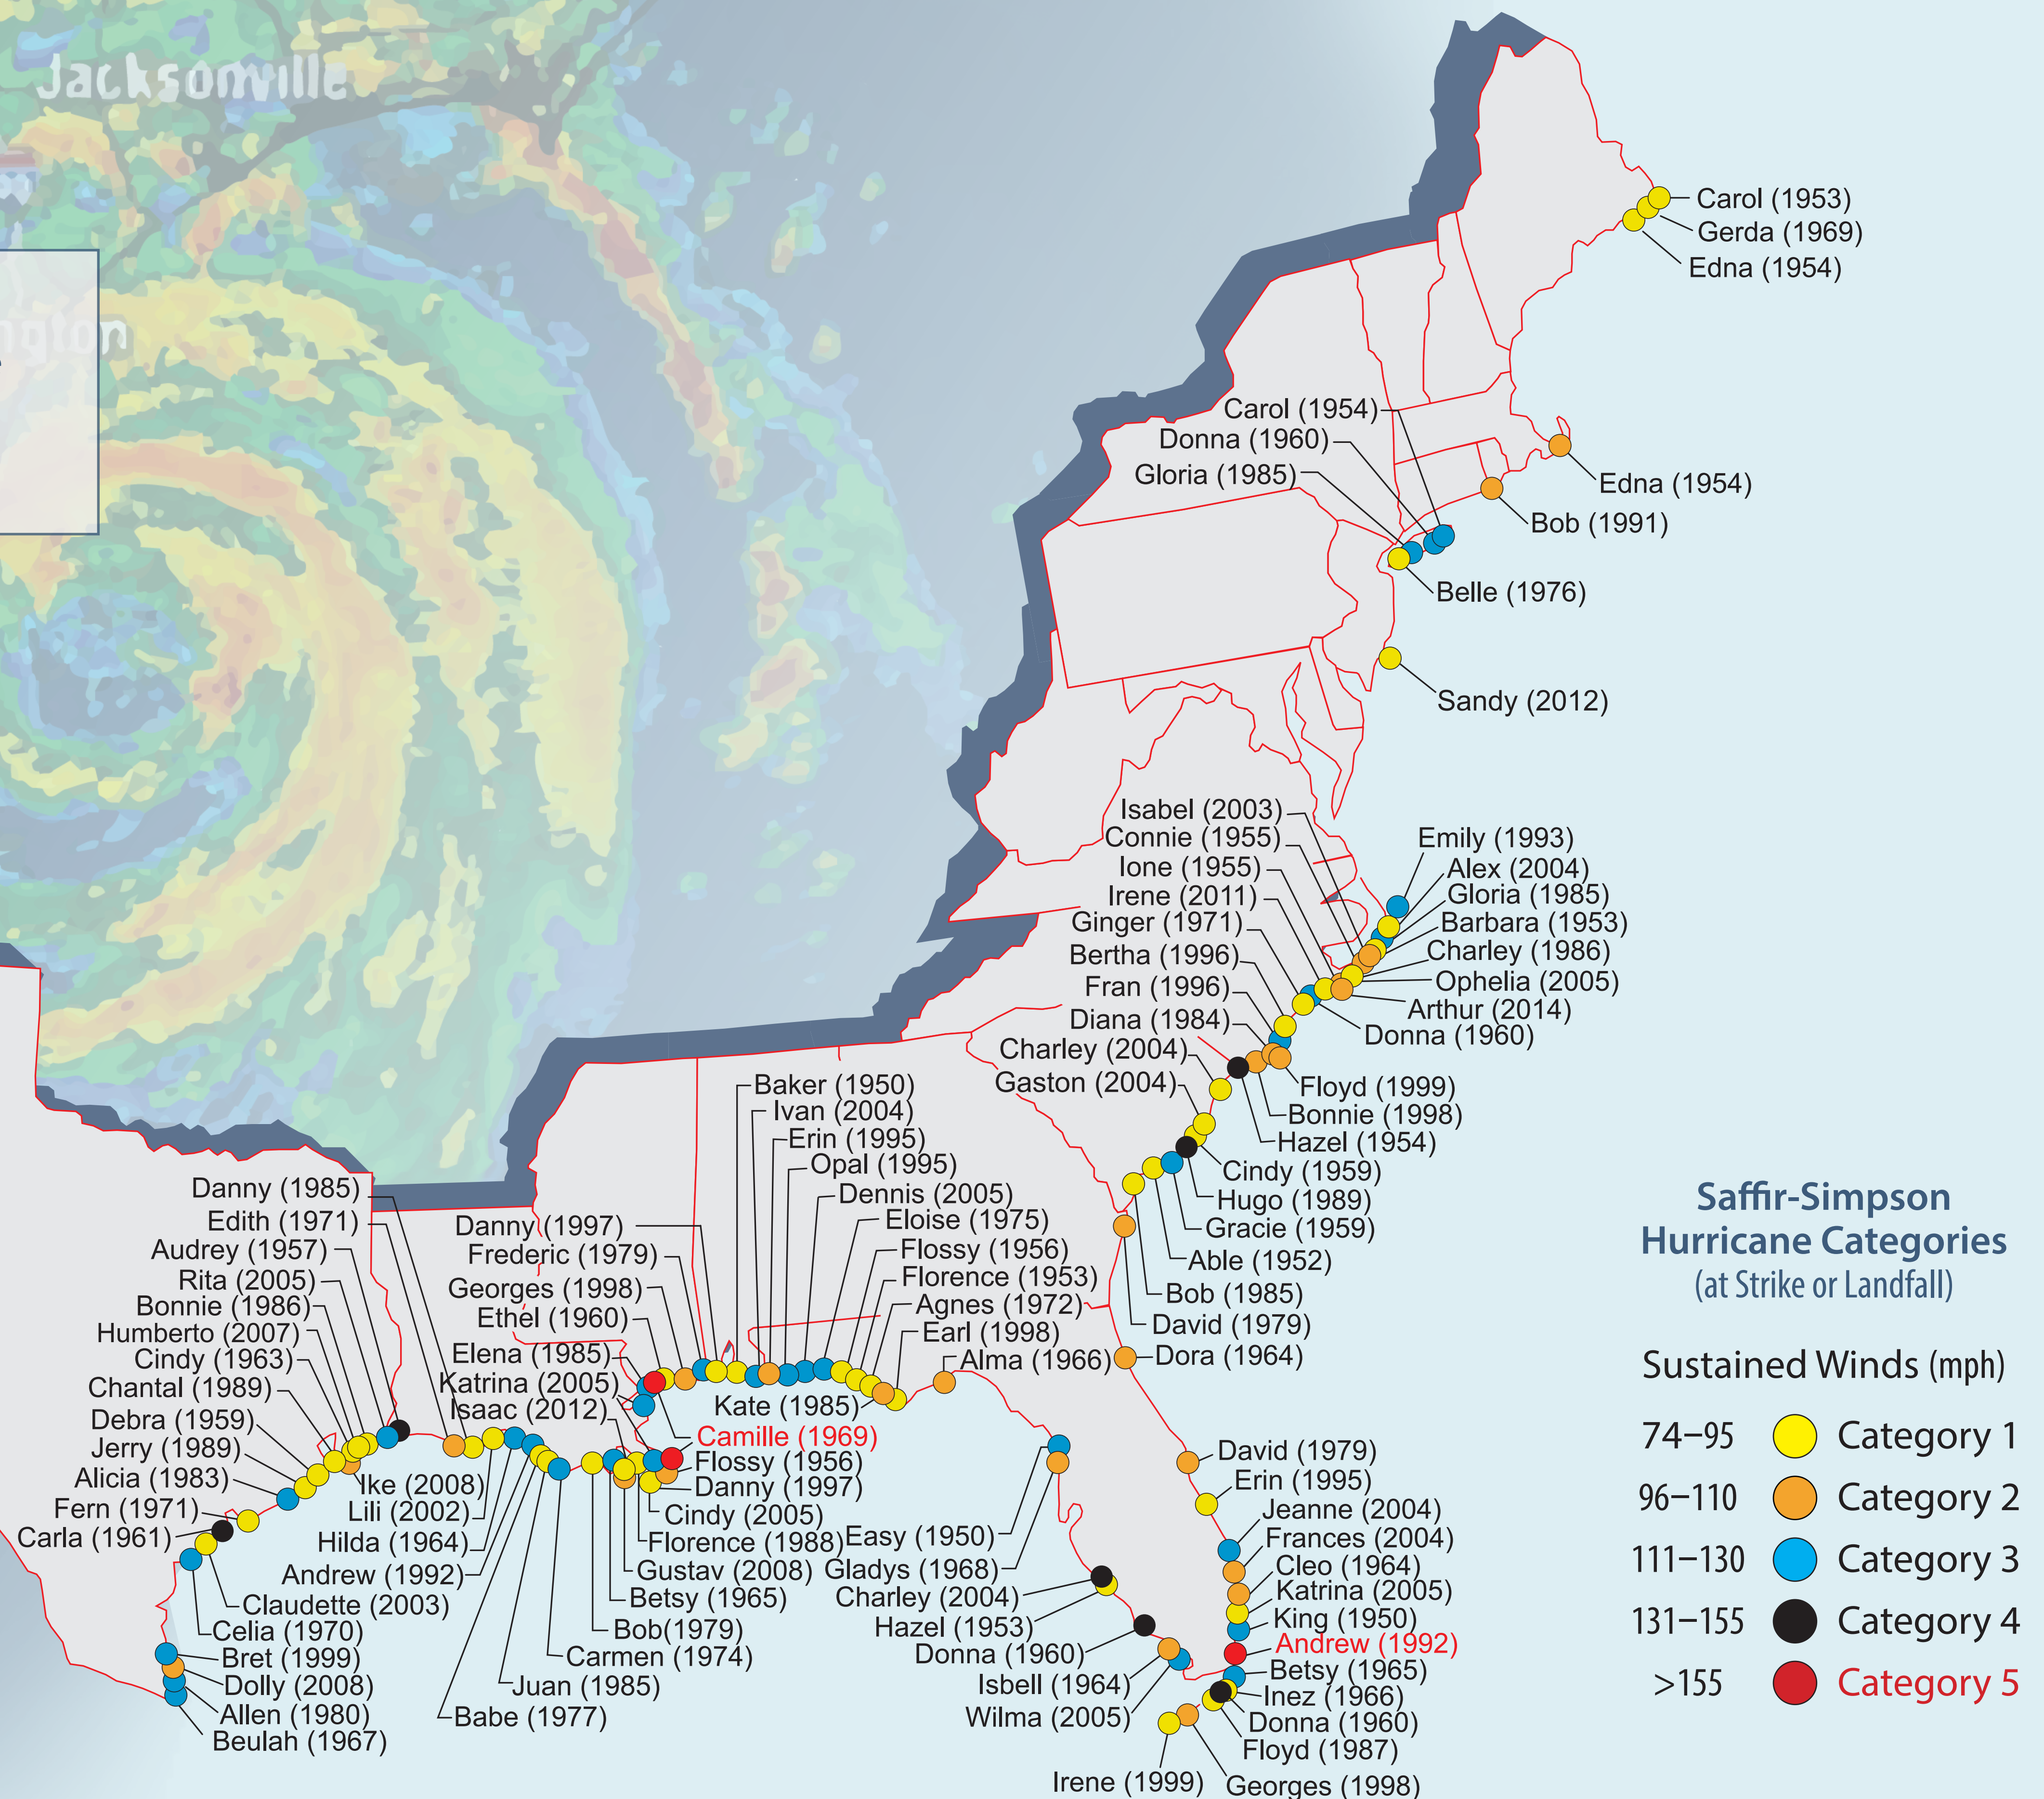

The only landfalling hurricane of the 2014 season, Arthur, came ashore late on July 3, near Cape Lookout, North Carolina, as a Category 2 hurricane. Arthur is the first Category 2 hurricane to strike the United States since Ike in 2008.

Poster Information

There were no hurricane strikes in the United States for the years 2000, 2001, 2006, 2009, 2010, and 2013.

Due to density of storms in some locations, actual strike locations are approximate.

* Strikes include hurricanes that did not make direct landfall but did produce hurricane force winds over land.
